MEMBERSHIP HAS ITS BENEFITS...

Advertising
Advocating for placement of print and digital advertising in member newspapers through a convenient “one-call, one-order, one-invoice” service. MNA statewide networks also help fund association programming while providing annual rebate checks to participating members.

Members Only Publications
Keep current on MNA, member, and industry news through the weekly Bulletin. The MNA website, www.mna.org, featuring a “members only” section, along with its Twitter and Facebook pages are updated regularly with important news and information just for you.

MNPublicnotice.com
Increasing accountability and transparency through public notices and expansion of access to this information – at no cost to local governments or to taxpayers – is the mission of our public notice site. All Minnesota newspapers accepting public notices are asked to participate by uploading published public notices to http://mnpublicnotice.com/.

Minnesota News Media Institute
MNI is the training arm of the Minnesota Newspaper Association. Founded in 2010, our mission is to provide education, training and professional development opportunities for the members of the Minnesota Newspaper Association, their employees, and news media professionals across the state.

Government Relations
MNA works diligently at the capitol to monitor legislation and engage in direct lobbying of key industry issues like accountability, transparency in government, keeping public notices in print and various business/tax issues. Grassroots lobbying efforts by publishers and editors through editorials and contact with legislators are essential to our successful efforts.

Legal Hotline
Participating in MNA’s Legal Hotline is like having your own media attorney on staff. One call could save your newspaper thousands of dollars in legal fees. Pre- and post-publication advice is offered in libel, privacy, and other First Amendment issues. Newspapers pay a small fee in addition to their annual dues to participate in the Legal Hotline.

Convention / BNC
The annual event provides top speakers on timely industry topics, as well as the chance to network with fellow members. We recognize your hard work annually with the Better Newspaper Contest and awards banquet.

Our front cover....

We received a record number of entries for the 2020 Directory Cover Contest. The winning designer is Dan Wallert, Production Artist for the West Central Tribune of Willmar. He said, “This is simply a pictorial representation of my understanding of Minnesota. Regardless of race, religion, gender, orientation, age or occupation. We live here together. Our diversity and inclusivity coupled with our industry and stewardship ensure the brightest of futures.”

Congratulations to Dan and the runners up (featured on pages 40 and 41)!

Training Opportunities for News Media Professionals

Training Sessions

MNI programs offer MNA members training in a broad range of topics essential to helping professionals in the field improve their job performance and serve their communities.

We work with our online partners - Online Media Campus, Poynter Institute, Newspaper Academy and others - to offer sessions on myriad topics including news reporting and writing, advertising techniques, hiring and retention of employees, website basics and social media. Learn about growing classified ads, phone photography, cybersecurity, and newsroom safety and security. We also present programs focused on specific news coverage or interest areas like politics, budgets and education.

In addition, members can take advantage of in-person programming throughout the year. We bring in industry experts to cover topics such as circulation updates, Sales 101, Open Meeting Law and the Data Practices Act, copyright laws, and design for all levels of expertise.

Editors & Publishers Community Leadership Program

During this in-depth months-long program, participants learn about the power newspapers have to frame issues and mobilize action. Ultimately, they are inspired to advance the health and vibrancy of their communities. It is open to editor-publisher teams and small newspapers where the publisher also serves as editor.

A current calendar of upcoming events can be found on our website:
