

MINNESOTA ADULTS TRUST NEWSPAPER OVER ANYTHING ELSE FOR PUBLIC NOTICES

Where Minnesotans Prefer Getting Public Notices

If public notices were placed on government websites, how often would you refer to them compared to those currently published in newspapers?

In the past seven days have you accessed the Internet for news, shopping, or social media?

Potentially, over one-fourth of Minnesota residents could lose the ability to access public notices if they are exclusively placed on government websites.
